RE: 10303-Progress Bank of Florida
Tampa, FL – In Receivership
Claimant I.D.: NS1030300355
Our File No.: 21257-00718

Dear Ms. Janolino:

Our office represents Mango and August, Inc. in the above noted matter. I am in receipt of your letter dated August 14, 2012, disallowing the claim made by Bernard August, Inc., Individually and t/a Marisa Mango Real Estate, as not being filed prior to the Bar Date of January 26, 2011. Respectfully, I am asking that you reconsider your decision to disallow this claim for the following reasons:

1. My client, Bernard August, Individually and t/a Marisa Mango Real Estate, did not receive notice of the appointment of the Receiver in time to file this claim before the Bar Date of January 26, 2011. Specifically, my client, Bernard August, Individually and t/a Marisa Mango Real Estate, was not brought into the lawsuit until a Joinder Complaint was filed against it on December 21, 2011. Enclosed please find a copy of the Joinder Complaint in that regard, which was previously supplied to you.

2. The original lawsuit by Frances Joyce was filed on June 6, 2011, in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, naming various individuals but not naming my client as a defendant. Thereafter, a Joinder Complaint was filed by an original defendant, Richard Devastey, against my client, Bernard August, Individually and t/a Marisa Mango Real Estate. That Joinder Complaint was not filed on December 21, 2011. Thereafter, my client was served with the Joinder Complaint and ultimately received notice from the Receiver/FDIC, in January 2012, informing them that they could file a claim against Progress Bank on or before May 7, 2012, which claim was timely filed by my client. Specifically, FDIC informed me by correspondence dated February 2012, that a Proof of Claim must be filed on or before May 7, 2012. The Proof of Claim was filed by me on behalf of my client on April 4, 2012.

August 23, 2012

3. At no time prior to the Bar Date of January 26, 2011, was my client on notice of the appointment of the Receiver or of the Bar Date. Importantly, my client was not on notice of a claim against it until a Joinder Complaint was filed on December 21, 2011, against my client. The Joinder Complaint named my client as a defendant in that Joinder Complaint.

Respectfully, I request that you reconsider the claim by my client against Progress Bank since my client never received notice of the appointment of a Receiver nor did they receive notice of the Bar Date of January 26, 2011, before they were sued in the Joined Complaint on December 21, 2011. Hence, my client never had an opportunity or reason to file a claim against FDIC/Progress Bank of Florida, until after my client was named as a defendant in the Joinder Complaint filed on December 21, 2011.

If you need any additional information, please contact me. Respectfully, I request that you reconsider the decision to disallow my client's claim as being filed after the Bar Date.

Very truly yours,

Michael J. Dempsey

RE: 10303- Progress Bank of Florida
Tampa, FL – IN Receivership
Claimant I.D. No.: NS1030300355
Our File No.: 21257-00718

Dear Ms. Janolino:

This is a follow up to my correspondence to you dated August 23, 2012, wherein I requested that you reconsider your decision to disallow my client's claim on the basis that it was not filed prior to the bar date and for failure to prove that Claimant, my client, did not receive notice of the appointment of the Receiver in time to file such claim before the bar date.

Kindly accept this correspondence as a request on behalf of my client, Mango & August, Inc., for administrative agency review of the claim, including an administrative hearing pursuant to 12 U.S.C.S. §1821, including but not limited to §1821(d)(6) and §1821(d)(7). I am requesting agency review/administrative review including an administrative hearing of the decision by FDIC to disallow my client's claim in the above noted matter since it is clear that my client had no notice whatsoever of any claim against it until a Joinder Complaint, previously supplied to you, which was time stamped, was filed on December 21, 2011. My client did not receive a copy of that Joinder Complaint until it was served on January 8, 2012. Accordingly, my client never had notice of the January 26, 2011, bar date until long after that date had passed. Additionally, all of the documents provided to you, along with my client's Proof of Claim, indicated the date on which the Joinder Complaint was filed against my client, Mango & August, Inc.(December 21, 2011) and the date that the original Complaint by Francis Joyce was filed against Richard Devastey, et al (June 6, 2011) after which Mr. Devastey filed a Joinder Complaint against my client on December 21, 2011.

My client did not have notice of the appointment of a Receiver nor notice of the bar date of January 26, 2011, until FDIC provided notice to my client on February 7, 2012, informing it that it could file a claim against Progress Bank on or before May 7, 2012. My client then filed its claim on April 4, 2012, which you have denied and for which I seek administrative review, agency review/administrative hearing pursuant to 12 U.S.C. §1821 et seq. Again, my client could not have had notice of the appointment of the Receiver and claim Bara Date of January 16, 2011, before that date because a claim (Joinder Complaint) against my client was not served on it until January 8, 2012.

I would greatly appreciate your contacting me pertaining to my client's request for administrative/agency review and administrative hearing of my client's disallowed claim in the above noted matter. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Dempsey
